DEVOTED TO THE MORAL, BUSINESS AND POLITICAL INTERESTS OF CITY, COUNTY AND STATE.

VOLUME I

GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA, FRIDAY, AUGUST 21, 1903

NO. 34

IN THE COURTS SEVERAL CASES

Before Acting Mayor MacArthur and Justice Colman.

SEVERAL CASES WERE TRIED.

Some Scraping, Throwing Rocks, Etc.—One Man Sent to the Gang.

In the Mayor's court Tuesday Henry Davis was fined $5 and costs for assaulting a negro with a buggy whip. He was also arraigned before Justice Colman on the same charge, but the case was then dismissed.

In the Mayor's court on the same day Holly Williams, colored, was fined $10 and costs by acting mayor MacArthur for disorderly conduct.

Melley Seasey, colored, was fined $5 and costs for disorderly conduct, but the mayor afterwards remitted $4 of the fine. In Justice Colman's court Will Jackson was fined $25 or sentenced to three months in the gang for assault. He was convicted of assaulting a man with a pitchfork, but failed to do any damage. Failing to pay the $25, Jackson will serve three months in the county chain-gang.

Several times during yesterday a crowd of colored people were gathered about Judge Colman's office like blackbirds around a rice stack, but nothing of special importance resulted. A few daisies were up for scraping, throwing rocks, etc., and several were fined from $5 to $10 and costs.

Prof. Guilliams in Tampa.

Prof. J. M. Guilliams, the popular and able president of East Florida Seminary, is in the city for a few days in the interest of that progressive and growing institution. Prof. Williams is one of the leading educators in the State and his influence has been very perceptible in the East Florida Seminary since he accepted its presidency. The school is fast growing in favor throughout the State, and nowhere more so than in Tampa. Prof. Williams is being accorded a very enthusiastic welcome and he has the assurance of a much larger attendance from this point than ever heretofore.—Tampa Tribune.

Notice of Teacher's Examination

Beginning on Tuesday, September 8th, 1903, at eight o'clock a. m., and continuing for four days, an examination of applicants for Teachers' Certificates will be held in Gainesville, Fla.

The examination of the white applicants will be conducted in the Academic Hall of East Florida Seminary, and that of the colored in Union Academy. An examination fee of $1.00 will be charged.

W. M. HOLLOWAY,
Co. Supt. Pub. Inst.

Arnold Promoted.

Maurice Arnold, for a year or more the very popular and efficient natling clerk in the post office here, has been promoted to the position of railway postal clerk, and has gone to Jacksonville to take a train assigned him.

Mr. Arnold's numerous friends here will regret his departure from the post office here, but will be a unit in congratulating him on his promotion. W. T. Waters of Keweenaw succeeds him here.

Distillery Burned.

The turpentine distillery operated by Mr. E. W. Millican, near Waldo, was consumed by fire Saturday afternoon.

We have not learned the exact cause of the fire, but are told that the still was being operated when the accident occurred.

Damage to still and fixtures, and the consuming of a quantity of spirits, rosin, bbbs, etc., make Mr. Millican's loss rather heavy.

Race Declared Off.

The race between the Shamrock and Reliance was declared off yesterday because the wind was too light. Many thousands of Americans and Englishmen were witnesses to the beginning of the contest, and at first the Shamrock went ahead of the Reliance, but when the race was called off the Reliance was in the lead.

To the Voters of Alachua County.

The Governor has very wisely decided not to appoint a tax assessor for this county until a choice has been made by the people in a primary, or by their representative in the Democratic Executive Committee. Realizing that I cannot have a personal meeting immediately with you, I hope to reach all through this medium. I announce myself a candidate for tax assessor and will be grateful for your support. If elected, I will visit annually each precinct so as to give all an opportunity of having an assessment made near their homes, thereby saving them a trip to Gainesville. I will do my utmost to please the public and serve them faithfully if elected.

Very respectfully,
J. A. ROSENBOUGH.

TRUBY-DUKE.

A Quiet Home Marriage in Gainesville Yesterday.

Yesterday at 11:30 a. m., at the home of the bride's parents, Miss D. H. Duke was united in marriage to Mr. J. H. Truby, Rev. M. A. Clonts, junior editor of the Southern Baptist official.

The marriage was a quiet affair, and was a surprise to many of Miss Duke's most intimate friends—only the family being present to witness the ceremony. Mr. A. C. Common and Miss Maude Duke acted as best man and lady, and the ceremony was beautiful and impressive.

The groom is a traveling man with headquarters in Jacksonville, and the bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Duke, of this city.

Immediately after the marriage the happy young couple left via the Atlantic Coast Line, for Ocala.

May they live long and be prosperous and happy is the wish of their friends, with whom THE STAR joins in hearty wishes.

Supt. Guilliams Home.

Supt. J. M. Guilliams, of East Florida Seminary, has returned from a trip to points in South Florida, where he went in the interest of the school.

Col. Guilliams reports a successful trip, and feels elated over the school's prospects for the future. While absent he was in Orlando, and talked with the business men there, and they are almost a unit in favor of voting out the saloons again. The county was once dry and the people allowed the saloons to return, and now they admit that the return of the saloons has brought no good, but an increase in crime.

Gus Waters in It.

Gus Waters has returned from Ocala, where he was taken by the United States authorities on a charge of selling whiskey without license, and where he gave bond in the sum of $200 for his appearance before the United States court and jury in October.

It will be remembered that Gus is also under bond to await the action of the grand jury in Alachua county. Gus is one of the has been politicians, but he is now in it.

Talk vs. Action.

(From Grog-Shop Christians.) They talk of Herod's dark offense, and grieve o'er Judas' infamy, Yet sell the blood of innocents, And take their pay in 'cense-fee.

They missions aid to Zangbar, Deplore dumb idols in Ka'oom, But here at home God's image mar, And souls destroy with Christian jarn.

HAIR GROWER.

Brooklyn N. Y., April 21, 99
Dr. N. B. Giddings,

Dear Sir:
Will you kindly inform me by return mail if you can send your fifty cent bottle of Hair Grower the Unparalleled (Trade Mark) and if so I will send you a postal note for the same. Please inform me the amount of postage if it can be mailed.

When in Florida the winter of 1897 and 98 I used five bottles of the twenty-five cent size and produced a nice growth of hair where it had been entirely bald for fifteen years, and now I would like to try it once more if I can get it.

Yours truly,
J. W. HAYNES, 59 Hicks St.

State of Florida,
County of Alachua,
City of Gainesville.

Personally appeared before the subscriber, a Notary Public in and for the State of Florida, at large, S. B. Giddings, who being duly sworn by me and deposes and says that the above testimony was sent to him by mail by J. W. Haynes, a man whom he had never seen or heard of, also that he had no knowledge of the man ever having used or procured the Unparalleled Hair Grower, and as far as he knows no one had influenced him to send it, and that the man has never received anything for sending it.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 12th day of November A. D. 1902.
S. B. GIDDINGS, M. D.
J. M. RIVERA.

Notary Public for the State of Florida at large.

For Sheriff.

To the Voters of Alachua County:
I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Sheriff, subject to the action of the next Democratic primary. If elected, I promise to discharge the duties of the office to the very best of my ability, and I solicit the support of all voters at the polls.

Respectfully,
W. C. HAGUE.
